November 2022

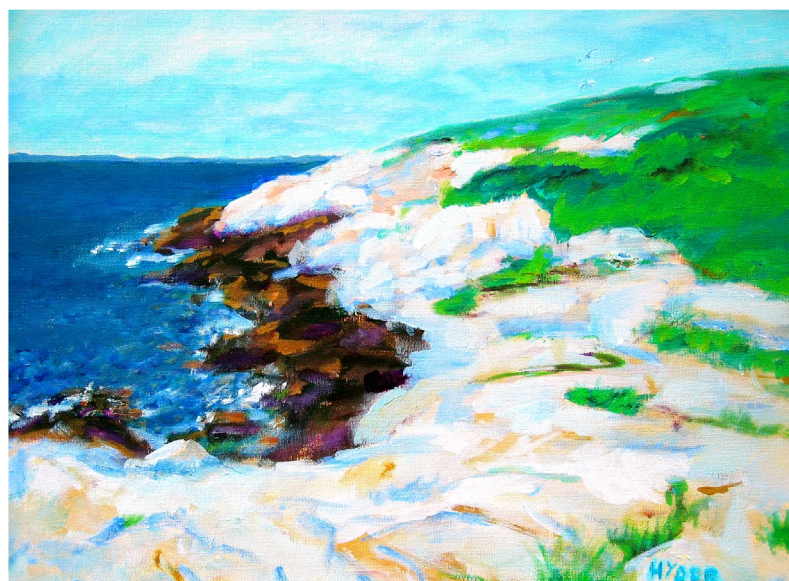

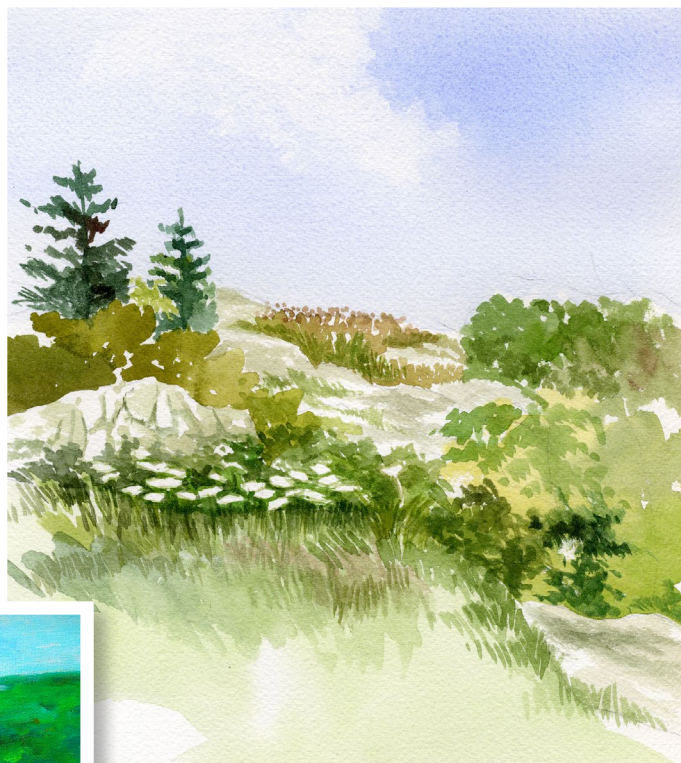

Visual Artists

Beautiful Star Island offers a variety of inspirational places for our visual artists to set up and paint. Here are a few pieces from past years.

Star Island View

Watercolor by Barbara Reynolds

Even simple scenes can inspire lovely paintings. One of Barbara's favorites, she donated this to the Star Island Auction one year.

On the Rocks (West Star Island)

Oil by Alison Hyder

Alison is often seen outside painting during the week on Star Island. Many of her items have gone into the Star Arts Auction over the years.

Workshop Leaders Wanted

We are looking for Workshop Leaders 2023

The best source for Workshop Leaders is you! Our most cherished and well-fitting teachers come from a shoaler's recommendation. You've seen them in action and know that they'd flourish and be beloved in our island habitat. Please send info to Programing Coordinator Richard Waring at rwaring@nejm.org.

Doug's Art Show

A Touch of Blue Art Show by Doug Richards was held in October at the Bake Free Library in Bow, NH. He had many lovely paintings big and small on display.

Star Arts Folks can send brief news of their galleries or openings.

Example:

Joe Smith's Watercolor Art will be featured at the Unnamed Gallery, from September 2 to October 31. Visit the following website for more information: www.joe_smith.com

Send news to stararts.registrar@gmail.com by the newsletter deadline, which will be the 1st of every month!

Newsletter Correction

October's Newsletter left out the title of Leone Scanlon's poem, Gull Cries. And a small correction on Mary Weidensaul's 3rd haiku should read as follows:

summer night
firefly in backyard
crescent moon in front
7/3/22

You can view the corrected version on our website:
